

| SUNDAY | MONDAY | TUESDAY | WEDNESDAY | THURSDAY | FRIDAY | SATURDAY |
|--|--|---|---|---|--|--|
| | | | Retell a familiar story changing the descriptive words. The small nice wolf. 1 | Use beads, rice, etc. and count one for each word in the sentence your parent says. 2 | Pretend you are a robot. What does your voice sound like? 3 | Toss a ball. Each time you catch it say a word, the next person comes up with a rhyming word. How many can you make up? 4 |
| Make a list of words. Say them broken apart. C-a-t. Can your child guess what words you said? 5 | Read a book or watch a movie. Talk about the settings and characters. 6 | Can you retell or act out a familiar story backwards? 7 | Say sentences and have your child hop for each word in the sentence. 8 | Perform an action. The next person copies and adds a new one. How many can you remember? 9 | Act out a movie/show together. 10 | Interview a family member. 11 |
| Say a sentence and have your child change one word in it to make it silly. Try more. 12 | Play a game tonight. Have your child tell you what to do. 13 | Say different words and clap how many syllables you hear. 14 | Play Silly Face. Who can make the silliest face? 15 | Tell your child how to make a sandwich. Forget to say specific steps. Encourage them to ask you clarifying questions. 16 | Read a book. How many two-syllable words can you find? 17 | Make a craft. Tell your parents what to do. 18 |
| Gesture what you do with an item in the kitchen. Can your parents name what it is? 19 | Sort through your toys, how many syllables in their names? 20 | Play Word Subs. 21 | Put tape on the floor. Walk on it like a balance beam, backwards, sideways, etc. 22 | Read a favorite book. Who's your favorite character and why? 23 | Pretend you are scared. Say a sentence with your scared voice. 24 | Act out a movie/show together. Make up a new ending. 25 |
| Read a book. What happened in the beginning, middle, and end? 26 | Tell your child how to draw a house. Forget to say things and encourage them to ask questions. 27 | What does "quiet as a mouse" mean? 28 | Gesture an item you would use in the bathroom. Can your parents guess what it is? 29 | Play a board game. Tell your parents what to do. 30 | | |
| | | | | | | |

APRIL

2020

WORD SUBS

Say 2 or 3 sentences that are the same except for one word.

Ask your child to tell you the word that you changed in the sentences. For example, "I folded your shirt and put it in your drawer. I folded your undershirt and put it in your drawer. I ironed your shirt and put it in your drawer." Words changed: shirt, undershirt, folded, ironed.

| | | | | | | |
|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|
| | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | |

